13.4 The Election Oversight Panel has the power to:

13.4.1 issue general guidelines to all Candidates addressing the subject matter of the alleged breach.

13.4.2 issue written observations to the Candidate, which may be made public by the Election Oversight Panel by such means as it considers appropriate, including on the IAAF website and/or at the Election Congress.

13.4.3 issue a warning to the Candidate, which may be made public by the Election Oversight Panel by such means as it considers appropriate, including on the IAAF website and/or at the Election Congress.

13.4.4 refer the alleged breach of the Rules to the Integrity Unit for further investigation and such action as it determines to be appropriate, which may include further action under these Rules (including, without limitation, remitting the matter to the Election Oversight Panel or pursuing the matter before the IAAF Disciplinary Tribunal) and/or action under the Integrity Code of Conduct.

13.5 Subject to the dispute provisions set out below, decisions made by the Election Oversight Panel will be final and binding.

13.6 In the event that an alleged breach of the Rules is referred by the Election Oversight Panel to the Integrity Unit for further investigation in accordance with Rule 13.4.4, above, then the Candidacy of the relevant Candidate (i.e., the Candidate whose alleged breach of the Rules has been referred to the Integrity Unit) will be automatically suspended until such time as the Head of the Integrity Unit has determined whether there has been a breach of these Rules and/or a Prima Facie breach of the Integrity Code of Conduct. Any automatic suspension triggered under this Rule 13.6 may not last for a period longer than ten days (starting from the date of the referral to the Integrity Unit). For the avoidance of doubt, any Candidate subject to automatic suspension must not engage in any campaign activity and/or undertake any other steps to further his/her Candidacy whilst suspended.

13.7 In the event that the Head of the Integrity Unit determines that a potential breach of the Rules referred to it pursuant to Rule 13.4.4, above, constitutes a Prima Facie serious breach of these Rules (being one which has the potential to seriously undermine the authenticity and integrity of the election and/or the reputation of Athletics) and/or a Prima Facie case of a Non-Doping Violation of the Integrity Code of Conduct, he or she may apply for a Provisional Suspension against the Candidate as contemplated by Rule 6 of the IAAF Reporting, Investigation and Prosecution Rules (Non-Doping). That Rule 6 shall apply mutatis mutandis for the purposes of these Rules, meaning (among other things) that in the event that a Provisional Suspension is sought only in respect of a Prima Facie serious breach of these Rules (and not also in respect of a breach of the Integrity Code of Conduct), any Provisional Suspension that is granted may be restricted to activity relating to the Candidacy (and, for the avoidance of doubt, such Provisional Suspension may extend beyond the maximum ten day period for an automatic suspension contemplated by Rule 13.6, above).

13.8 The Provisional Suspension of any Candidate will remain in place until such time that the alleged breach of the Rules and/or the Integrity Code of Conduct has been investigated and/or prosecuted (pursuant to the Reporting, Investigation and Prosecution Rules (Non-Doping)) before the IAAF Disciplinary Tribunal.

13.9 The President, a Council Member, an Executive Board Member and/or the Chief Executive Officer, may refer any alleged breach of these Rules for review by the Election Oversight Panel, who will deal with the alleged breach as set out in Rules 13.2 to 13.4 above.

13.10 If a report of an alleged breach of these Rules prior to the Election Congress is made after the closure of the relevant Election Congress meeting, the Election Oversight Panel shall refer the matter to the Head of the Integrity Unit.

Disputes

13.11 An Applicable Person may appeal a final decision made by the Disciplinary Tribunal (pursuant to Rule 13.8, above) to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (“CAS”) (Appeal Arbitration Division), in accordance with these Rules, by filing a Statement of Appeal with the CAS and with the IAAF within three working days (3) days of the date of communication of the written reasons for the decision. The IAAF will be the respondent to the appeal.

13.12 Any other dispute arising in connection with these Rules (including in respect of their validity, legality and/or proper interpretation) between the Election Oversight Panel and any Candidate or other person to whom these Rules apply (“Applicable Person”), will be submitted to arbitration before the CAS (Ordinary Arbitration Division) to the exclusion of any other court or forum. Any individual wishing to bring a dispute before the CAS under this Rule 13.12 must file a request for arbitration within three (3) working days of the date of the ground(s) of dispute first arising.

13.13 The CAS will hear and determine any dispute or appeal brought under these Rules definitively in accordance with the relevant provisions of the CAS Code of Sports-Related Arbitration, provided that in any appeal under Rule 13.11 above, the person will have seven (7) days from the filing of the Statement of Appeal to file his/her Appeal Brief, and the IAAF will have seven (7) days from its receipt of the Appeal Brief to file its Answer.

13.14 These Rules and any dispute or appeal relating to these Rules will be governed by any relevant provisions of the IAAF Constitution and IAAF Rules, with the laws of Monaco applying subsidiarily. In the case of any conflict between any of the above instruments and the CAS Code then in force, the above instruments will take precedence. The proceedings before the CAS will be conducted in English, unless the parties agree otherwise. Pending determination of the dispute or appeal by the CAS, the Rules under challenge and/or the decision under appeal (as applicable) will remain in full force and effect unless the CAS orders otherwise.

13.15 The decision of the CAS determining the dispute or appeal will be final and binding on all parties. All parties waive irrevocably any right to any form of appeal, review or recourse by or in any court or judicial authority in respect of such decision, insofar as such waiver may be validly made.
13.16 Where necessary, in the interest of justice and/or in light of any time pressures around an election, any proceedings before CAS may be conducted on an expedited basis.
